ROYALE
SAINTE HÉLÈNE

A true experience of heritage & elegance

The boutique hotel is named in honour of St. Helen, the patron Saint of the parish, and celebrates the vibrant spirit of the city of Birkirkara. The story behind the building dates back to the 19th century as a private house accommodating a family of seven and a bustling commercial bicycle store known as Pawlu Tar-Roti. The property was expertly restored, maintaining the original architectural features and characteristics. Nestled within its walls are echoes of familiar warmth and comfort, accommodating the key requirements for a pleasant stay, making your business or leisure trip more valuable.
